Spring 2017

Technology Update

- Siemens/Signia recently introduced its first lithium ion hearing system. Cellion is rechargeable for extended daily use and comes in two technology levels, 32 and 48 channels. Also, Cellion is nearly waterproof to deliver excellent sound and performance for even the most demanding lifestyles.
- Silk, from Siemens/Signia, is a new CIC (completely-in-the-canal) hearing aid that is nearly invisible and extremely comfortable. Available in three technology levels, 24, 32 and 48 channels, Silk can be fit instantly in our office, without the need for ear impressions. Ask us about this exciting new option today!

Telecare

Telecare is a brand new, groundbreaking technology from Siemens/Signia that will help us provide you with more efficient and effective hearing care. It works via the new MyHearing app for Android and iPhone, allowing you to not only adjust your hearing aids but to interact directly with us through the portal. You will be able to rate your hearing experience, send us messages and take a series of lessons that will give you better insight and understanding of your hearing. Finally, and most importantly, we can remotely adjust your hearing aids through this app, offering a convenient solution for when you are unable to make it into our office. Please contact us if you would like more information about Telecare.

New Extended Saturday Hours!

Effective May 6th, our Saturday hours will be from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm.

We are happy to introduce our newest Team Member, Laura Skelton!

Laura is our patient coordinator and will be available to help you.

QUICK TIPS

- If you are not hearing through your hearing aid but can still hear the program and volume beeps normally, try brushing out your microphones.
- If your hearing aids are equipped with an automatic phone program and the program isn't engaging properly, you might need an additional magnet for your phone...we'll give you one!
- Remember that we carry a full line of useful hearing care accessories. Ask us for an Accessories Guide for your ordering convenience.
